Changed Hands.

The old Darst gin property has changed hands once more—it having been recently bought by Messrs. Frank Vrazel and his brother-in-law Mr. Paul Templin. This gin, one of the oldest established in the county, is well equipped and, up to the past few years, commanded a large patronage. Mr. Vrazel will soon move his family into the Cobb residence just north of the home of W. W. Glass and will assume the management of the property in person. —Gonzales Inquirer.

Sweet Home's First Bale.

Sweet Home, Tex., Aug. 18.—The first bale of cotton of this season was brought in today by Frank Fixae, was ginned by J. C. Koerth, weighed 475 pounds and was bought by W. H. Morgan & Co. for 12c. Premiums to the amount of $10 were subscribed by the merchants of the town.

Moulton, Texas, August 19.—Moulton received its first bale of cotton yesterday, raised by Mr. Joe Falteck and sold to A. Baur & Sons. It weighed 550 pounds, and brought 13 cents.

Medical Association Meeting.
